Election Resource Guide

The Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion has curated a list of programs and resources focusing on the 2020 election.

Center For Faculty Development and Excellence
Tumultuous Times on Campus: Helping Students Navigate the 2020 Election
October 28, 2020 | 11:00 am
More Information

Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing
Race, Gender, and Covid 19: Social Forces that Shaped the 2020 Election with Dr. Chryl N. Laird
November 4, 2020 | 4:00-5:15 pm (Post-Election)
More Information

Belonging and Community Justice
The Election is Over: Now What?
November 5, 2020 | 7:00 pm (Post-Election)
More Information

Emory University Election 2020 Toolkit
Emory recognizes that our faculty and staff are experiencing a great deal of stress which has been brought on by multiple sources: COVID-19, feelings of sadness, financial concerns, racial and social unrest, instances of police brutality, and a polarized political climate have had an impact on everyone.

As we approach the upcoming election, emotions and stress levels may run even higher. The toolkit below offers tips and resources to help Emory employees and their managers navigate the election and the weeks that will follow.

Managing the 2020 Election on Campus
A collaboration between the CFDE, Laney Graduate School, and the Department of Political Science.

Rollins School of Public Health
Rollins Election Day Initiative
More Information

Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
201 Dowman Drive
Atlanta, Ga 30322
odei.emory.edu